

Leave a lasting legacy

Support the
Wainui SLSC
Endowment Fund

Wainui SLSC

was the first club in the Gisborne District dedicated to surf lifesaving. They have been preserving and saving lives since 1939.

Wainui is a challenging environment, there are a lot of rips and big swells, so they need the best lifeguards they can possibly have patrolling the beach.

Wainui's goal is to make their kids fantastic in the ocean, to the point where they can look after themselves in the water and also look after others that enjoy the beach. A small family-oriented club, Wainui has members from all generations patrolling the beach, and participating in Nippers, Ocean Athletes and national rep teams.

Any donation you make will be invested, protected and grown each year in line with inflation. The surplus investment income will be granted back to Wainui Surf Lifesaving Club every year, meaning your donation will keep supporting them forever.

Leave a legacy in your will

When making a will many people want to give something to their community, or leave a bequest to their favourite charitable cause. It's a common misconception that only wealthy people leave money to charity when they pass away. Gifts in wills, or bequests, are not just made by the rich and famous. The reality is most bequests are made by ordinary, hard working people who want to make a positive difference in their community and to other people lives. You may consider leaving a percentage of your estate or a specified sum in your will to the Wainui SLSC Endowment Fund, confident in the knowledge your bequest will be an enduring legacy for the club.
